G-E ELECTRIC SOIL HEATING CABLES AND THERMOSTATS

Seedsmen - Florist - Bulb Dealers

A "Tailor Made" Profit Plan For You.....
This fall and winter, right in your own locality -- Home Owners, Local Gardeners and Hobby Greenhouse Operators are going to be in the market for G-E Electric Soil Heating Cable as a result of G-E's consumer directed advertising campaign from coast to coast.

People will be talking about that amazing little wire that melts ice off roofs, snow off the sidewalks; prevents frozen pipes in houses, barns and poultry houses; keeps hobby greenhouses from cold damage and makes vegetable plants and flowers pop up weeks in advance.

Don't be caught with your "Cables Down", drop me a postal and ask for details of free promotional material, together with complete descriptions and low wholesale prices.

Greenhouse Owners - Commercial Growers

"The Early Plants Take the Sales.....
For over 15 years G-E Electric Soil Heating Cable has helped Greenhouse Owners, Florist, Nurserymen, Farmers and Commercial growers hit peak markets and top prices by producing earlier, stronger and healthier flowers and plants. Beyond a doubt it can do the same for you.

If you have a Greenhouse, Hotbeds, Nursery Coldframes and Propagation Houses that you are interested in heating with G-E Cable, I can give you a special discount from regular Wholesale prices on substantial quantity. In addition to this I will be happy to help you in planing your heating program and selecting the proper equipment to fit your individual needs. Just tell me size, style and type areas you wish to heat. There is no obligation.
